

Technology

Weil advises on some of the largest and most innovative matters for the world's top technology players. Weil has advised 83% of the technology companies based in the San Francisco Bay Area and approximately 50% of the companies overall on the 2019 Fortune 100 list. Our client list is a veritable who's who of technology companies.

Weil has a deep contingent of highly regarded lawyers focused on the particular needs of technology companies. From litigation matters – including intellectual property, patent, employment, class actions, securities, antitrust litigation, among others – to mergers and acquisitions, our lawyers have deep experience in the full range of legal issues facing technology companies. Our Restructuring Department is also well situated to handle any debt refinancing and related matters.

Weil also offers a dedicated Technology & IP Transactions (TIPT) team with a deep bench of lawyers who spend 100 percent of their time on technology and intellectual property transactions, a distinguishing feature of the Firm.
